She told me before,
she won't be tellin' me aggin
I been leanin' on the bottle just a little too hard
My only friend

Said goodbye to love, guess I caused her pain
I been down before, looks like I'm goin' down again
Ain't no use in cryin' 'cause it's me who's been denyin'
I been leanin' on the bottle just a little too hard
My only friend.

She said I'm no good, stayin' out all night
Comin' home all whiskers and booze
Ya know she's probably right
She told me before, she won't be tellin' me again
I been leanin' ...

Came right outa nowhere, like a twister through the night
Maybe all my nasty habits been makin' me blind
Cause I know deep inside something's tellin' me I've Been leanin' ...

Said goodbye to love, got myself to blame
Maybe if I squeeze that bottle, I'll get another drop of shame
I probably should have listened, 'cause I'll be hurtin' round the bend
Where I'll be leanin' on the bottle just a little too hard
My only friend.
